

Capability Statement

Executive Summary

Hollander Machine is an American-Owned Michigan Corporation established in 1973. Our proven manufacturing processes improve work quality and production capabilities, which saves time and money. We produce a 100 percent USA content product that remains competitively priced. Our customers have told us we are very competitive, even when compared to Asian competitors!

We currently sell our products in the European, Asian and US markets. Hollander's annual sales are less than $1.0 million and we employ six(6) individuals with extensive machining and fabricating experience.
